Call for Presentations & Trainings – Share Your Expertise

Deadline for Abstract Submission: September 21, 2018

The Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium, on behalf of the Alaska Tribal Conference on Environmental Management (ATCEM), invites you to submit an Abstract to present or provide a training at the 2018 ATCEM conference! Presentations and trainings should focus on informing, educating and increasing audience knowledge about current and emerging environmental issues that can impact human health and include innovative or motivational approaches to addressing these challenges. Presentations and trainings that bridge traditional knowledge and western science are desired.

Audience Profile

ATCEM hosts over 500 participants each year including representatives from Tribes, Environmental and Health organizations, and State and Federal agencies. Participants have a unique opportunity to network with a broad range of environmental health professionals from across Alaska, with a common goal of making our communities safe, healthy and more sustainable.

How to Submit an Abstract

- Abstracts can be submitted electronically by e-mail to atcem@anthc.org
- There is no limits to the number of abstract submissions you may make.
- Questions: Please email atcem@anthc.org or call 907-729-3496 or 907-729-3492

Confirmation & Notifications

- All abstracts will be reviewed by the ATCEM Planning Team.
- Decision notifications will be sent via e-mail no later than Friday, October 10th.
- If your abstract is accepted, a presenter agreement will be provided via e-mail. It will contain complete session/training details including day/time/location, registration details, ATCEM point-of-contact, and pre-session set-up instructions.

Registration

ATCEM would not be possible without our wonderful presenters and trainers! To express our appreciation, the registration fee for the day of the presentation or training will be waived for one presenter and one co-presenter. Full week presenter registration options are also available.

Thank you for your interest in sharing your expertise during the 2018 ATCEM! If you have any questions please contact us at atcemak@anthc.org
